

Amesbury RFC – Honorary President

Purpose

The Honorary President at Amesbury Rugby Club serves as a respected ambassador, offering guidance and support while upholding the club's traditions. This is a non-voting role unless deputising at Executive committees as directed by the Chair. They provide wisdom, mentorship, and strategic insight when needed. Their role strengthens the club's identity, fostering a sense of continuity and respect among members. As a figurehead, they help maintain strong relationships with sponsors, supporters, and the wider rugby community. Ultimately, they represent the club's heritage, ensuring its values endure for future generations.

Key aspects of the role

- Act as the figurehead of the club both inwardly and outwardly. Be the welcoming face of the club, set a positive example to influence the way the club is perceived
- Provide advice and assistance as required to Exec
- Act as chair of the committee in the absence of the chair. Deputise for other Exec members as requested by chair
- Provide advice and assistance to any of the officers of the committee as required.
- Act as a member of any sub-committee if required.
- Ensure club meets all its compliance deadlines in a timely manner.

Is this role for you?

The Honorary President is a respected figurehead, embodying the club's values and traditions while offering guidance when needed. They provide wisdom and strategic insight, helping the leadership navigate important decisions while ensuring continuity in the club's ethos. Their role is deeply rooted in community engagement, strengthening relationships with sponsors, supporters, and local organizations. The Honorary President possesses strong communication and interpersonal skills, allowing them to inspire and unify members. Their passion for the club, combined with a keen understanding of its history and aspirations, ensures they serve as a bridge between past and future generations. Integrity, diplomacy, and approachability make them effective in maintaining the club's stability and reputation. Ultimately, they play a crucial part in preserving the club's identity while fostering its long-term success.

Contact

To find out more about this role, please contact the Club Secretary via amesburyrfc.secretary@gmail.com